National Commission for Children's Right

3317. SHRIMATI N.P. DURGA: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government are in the process of formulating a legislation to set up a National Commission for Children's Right in keeping with UN convention on the issue;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) what exactly is the UN convention on the children's rights?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI KANTI SINGH): (a) and (b) A proposal to constitute a National Commission for Protection of Child Rights is under consideration for proper enforcement of children's rights and effective implementation of laws relating to children. India is a signatory to the UN Convention on the rights of the Child and the Commission would also consider implementation of the provisions of the Convention.

(c) The Convention on the Rights of the Child provides for several rights of children for their survival, development and protection, such as, education, health nutrition, water and sanitation, protection from economic and sexual exploitation, etc.
